

Illustration and Writing, Conflict - Now and Future 2020 vs. 2030

2020 is the beginning of the school year, and we have just entered university without sufficient experience and understanding of professional knowledge and social awareness. So we use dead branches and cooler blues to show our lack of experience.

It's 2030. After 10 years of training and accumulation of experience, we have gradually grown up and become who we want to be. Therefore, we use thriving trees and bright green to show our ten-year growth, and the rectangle on the lower right represents the training we have experienced, and it is no longer a round circle like the upper left corner.
